

Index

(Numbers in italics refer to figures and tables.)

accompaniment 9, 19n

Action and Capacity Building process

236–7

implementation of 237

adaptive behaviour 194

agendas

for change, and power 6

implementation of 8–9

of the ‘learning organisations’,

BUL 90–1

new policy agenda, development projects 189–90

and priorities, who sets them? 6–7

shifting and change in 6–7

AI see Appreciative Inquiry (AI)

aid agency funding 187–8

alien-hand syndrome 88–90, 100

analytical skills 176, 177, 179

Appreciative Inquiry (AI) 75–6, 80–1

and capacity-building 76–7

and INGOs 93, 100

appreciative system, Vickers 187

approaches

xi–xii

addressing power 5–6

gender-equitable 4

inclusionary, participatory,

top–down 3

and methods 2, 6

and policies 8

and the political arena 6–7

a rough guiding framework 2–3 working with informal political forces 7

see also methods

aquaculture sector, Rwanda, wetland land-use systems

development community 147, 152

traditional rules of collective use

151–2

women are key workers 147, 148

assumptions

about what is good for an organisation 94

about what is/is not possible 5

and approaches to development

4–5

funded assumptions as dogma 29

in Logical Framework Approach

193–4

underlying, affecting project evaluations 246

attitudes

job-related 171–2

organisational 61–2, 67

available resources approach 231–2

best practice 12–13, 32, 41n

Botswana, ethnicity and participatory development methods 196–213

Constitution protects community

stratification 201

consultation 202–3, 205–7

defining ethnicity 197

economic boom 205, 211n

effects of Tribal Grazing Lands

Policy 201

ethnic exclusionism in the community forum 196, 203–5

- ethnic minorities 200, 201, 209
- government 205–7
- kgotla* 204–5
- participatory development 198–9
- problems and opportunities 199, 200–01, 207–10
- socio-economic inequality 205
- socio-political realities of ethnicity 199–202
- bottom–up development 86, 240, 241
- bottom–up organisational learning (BUL) 90–2, 100–2
- BRAC Gender Quality Action-Learning 139
- BUL see bottom–up organisational learning (BUL)

- capacity 80, 81
 - efforts to define 82
 - as a festive curry meal 81–5
- capacity builders 64–5
- capacity building 40, 73–85, 158, 234 and Appreciative Inquiry (AI) 75–7, 80
- capacity as ... capacity includes ... 80–1
- capacity-assessment methods 78–9
- create the environment for 70
- knowledge-based 36
- organisation-centred 69
- in the Participatory Change Process 237
- radical response 70
- shifting the paradigms of practice 60–72
- as a slippery concept 81–2
- ‘train the trainers’ 70
- capacity-deficit reduction 78
- capacity-measurement tool 83, 83–4
- case studies
 - usefulness of 12
 - see also* Change in Tanzania study; Coping with Cost Recovery; South African NGO case study; sub-Saharan Africa

- CBOs see community-based organisations
- Chanderema Women’s Group case study 146, 150, 155–6, 160–2
- change agents
 - in gender mainstreaming 127
 - in organisational change 120–1
- Change in Tanzania study 45, 46–53
 - approach to commissioned research 47–9
 - Assessments I and II 49–53
 - ‘macro’—‘micro’ perspective on change 46–53
 - orientations — objectives — conclusions 45–6
 - use of ‘optimal ignorance’ 54
- China
 - slow development of science in 38
 - system of models 35
- Christian Reformed World Relief Committee (CRWRC) 74–9, 77–8
- ‘Church/party’ model 29, 33
- ‘Church/party organisation’ vs. ‘learning organisation’ 26
- CIT see Critical Incident Technique
- clients
 - of Church/party model 27, 29
 - engagement with before work begins 112
 - helped to own acquired knowledge 39–40
- communication skills 176, 177
- communities 198, 228–9
 - community organising 234–5 and evaluation 244
 - helped by use of PM tools 231–2
 - and INGOs 88, 95, 99–100
 - and negative discovery 230, 231
 - poor, in Coping with Cost Recovery study 54–5
 - and PRA 221–2
 - problems addressed with own resources 232
 - training in self-governance 95
- community groups, INGO interaction with
 - input of money 95

- potential alternatives 95–6
 - self-reporting back to INGOs 97
- community research and evaluation 94
- Community Roundtables 238
- community-based organisations (CBOs) 67
- consultants, constructing log-frames 189
- Coping with Cost Recovery study 45–6, 53–7
 - Zambia Participatory Poverty Assessment 53,54–5,56
- coping skills 175,176
- corruption 32
- credit, seasonal, Malawi 153–4
- Critical Incident Technique (CIT) 170–2,181
 - job-related skills 173–8, 179–80
 - origins, rationale, and procedure 170
 - work objectives 172, 173, 178–9
- ‘cross-cutting issues’ 116,119
- cultural dichotomy, and PRA 198–9,211n
- cultural stereotyping 197
- the dance, metaphor, different uses of 194
- development
 - approaches to not neutral 2
 - bottom-up 86,240,241
 - the development project 184–5
 - and human rights 24–5
 - people-centred 69
 - state-led and multiple-actor 189–90,191
- development agencies ix–xii
 - concept of participation in planning 198
 - cynicism about LFA tools 184
 - helping clients to own knowledge 39–40
 - Jacobinic-Bolshevik strategy vs. adaptive/experimental/pragmatic approach 33
 - movement to an open learning model 36
 - Official View(s) 26–43
 - adds nothing of scientific value to a thesis 34
 - idea of unscientific 30
 - new learning at expense of, not encouraged 26–7
 - and the rage to conclude 31–3
 - should move away from paternalism 35
 - promotion of internal adversarial engagement 38–9
 - development community, Rwanda, inadvertently contributed to genocide 147,152
 - development industry, methods and tools x–xi
 - development management
 - embedded in public action 184
 - professionalisation of 183
 - development organisations
 - past capacity of 73
 - poverty alleviation as a mandate 229
 - and projects, introduction of PRA into 222
 - shift to supporting and enabling role 82–3
 - use of PM tools 231–2
 - development planning
 - according to LFA 215–16
 - according to PRA 216–17
 - combining LFA and PRA 218
 - comparing the methods 217
 - pitfalls in 214
 - development practice 94, 112
 - development practitioners 112,187
 - commitment to community self-development 93–4
 - guiding philosophies 227–8
 - need to develop new abilities 71
 - relationships with development researchers 44
 - to combine coherence of action with punctuated intervention 188
 - development professionals, view of (Freire) 40

- development project approach 144
- development projects
 - approaches to evaluating outcomes 240–8
 - influencing environments 187
 - need to step back for a broad view 185
 - and new policy agenda (NPA) 189–90
 - non-participatory approaches 241–2
 - old blueprint approach 190
 - and ongoing public action 187–8
 - as part of the development process 186–7
 - participatory 241
 - participatory and non-participatory 242
 - and PRA 222
 - proposed LFA procedures 215–16
 - relationship between policy and action 185–6
 - tension in ix, 185–6, 187
 - variations in 184–5
- development theory, poverty as disempowerment 92
- development values, and humanitarian values 22
- development workers
 - ability to assess workers 175
 - learn to cope with a different survival ethos 173–4
 - learn to identify job requirements, use all available resources 174
 - role conflict and role ambiguity 180
 - 'role shock', an occupational hazard 180
 - self-interested motivations 178–9
 - solidarity with the poor 92
 - stress of working in a different culture 168
 - use of fair employment practices, assertiveness and sensitivity 174–5
 - working cross-culturally 168–9
- devil's advocacy 41n
 - in development agencies 38–9
- disaster response, 167
- 'diversity issues' 104
- donors
 - Change in Tanzania study well received 51
 - INGO relations with, and potential alternatives 97–9
 - unenthusiastic about long people-centred processes 89
- double visioning 31
- ecological approach 146
- ecology of knowledge 27–8
- education, popular 234
- emergency relief work, critical incidents in 167–82
 - see also* Critical Incident Technique (CIT); critical incidents
- enabling conditions, sub-Saharan case studies 148–56, 160
- indicators associated with 156–9, 157, 160
- environment, three-level model of 187
- environments, resource-poor 167
- ethnic exclusionism in community forum, Botswana 196, 203–5
- ethnicity
 - antagonistic to basic concepts underlying PRA 199
 - defined 197
 - and ethnic identity, important in Africa 196
 - and participatory methods in Botswana 196–13
- evaluation
 - an inherent part of people's lives 245–6
 - definition (Patton) 242
 - of development projects 241–7
 - applicability 245–6
 - benefits and disadvantages 246
 - choice of evaluation type 244
 - difficult to evaluate intangible processes 241
 - objective and subjective approaches 242–3, 243–5, 246–7, 248

- purpose of the evaluation 243–4
- synthesis 246–7
- who conducts the evaluation 244
- will reflect underlying assumptions 246
- needs approaches and methods 17
- in a participatory context 241
- participatory evaluation distinct from evaluation of participation 243
- 'proof' an inappropriate aim 17
- extension and training
 - Chanderema Dairy Project, Kenya 150
 - effective and gender-aware 164
 - Women in Agriculture Development Project (Malawi) 151
- FAO see Food and Agricultural Organization (FAO)
- farm clubs, Malawi 153–4
- feedback loops 99–100
- feminist theory 122
- field study, Change in Tanzania study 47–9
 - Assessments 49–53
- flexi-time, and gender inequalities 122
- focus-groups 49–50
- Food and Agricultural Organization (FAO)
 - experience with gender mainstreaming 129–31
 - first Plan of Action for Women and Development 133–4
 - learning from stakeholders 131–3
 - second Plan of Action for Women and Development 134–8
 - see also* Women in Development (WID) unit
- funding, problem of longer horizons 15
- funding and power 15, 95
- fundraising, an opportunity 98
- The Gambia, case study: agricultural gender politics 147, 148, 152–3, 154
- gender
 - and client sensitivities 112–13
 - effect of on soybean technology adoption 149–50
 - key variable determining access to/control over natural resources 143
 - linked to other inequalities 116
 - meaning and roots 106–10
 - need for shared commitment to and common understanding about 121
 - no longer an optional topic in OD theory 104–5
 - and organisational change 107–10
 - and organisational culture 121–2
 - and political ecology in The Gambia 147
- gender approach to organisational change 112
- Gender and Development (GAD) approach 107–8
- key differences from OD approach 111, 117–18
- raises fear and resistance 119–20
- values and practice 111–13
- gender bias, discussion, Honduran workshop 130
- Gender and Development (GAD) theory and practice 105
- gender equality 107–9
- gender experts 141
- gender inequalities 111, 116
 - addressing of, choice of ways 109
 - denial of root causes 119–20
 - and flexi-time 122
 - goal is eradication 119
 - if no shared view, consultants may withdraw 112–13
 - internal and external, no quick fix 109
 - policy options 109
- gender interventions 105
- gender mainstreaming 124–42
 - approaches based on planners as stakeholders 140

- conceptual frameworks for 125–6
- learning from stakeholders, gender training, FAO 131–3
- lessons learnt from experiences 127–9
- ‘minimum requirements’ for 124
- more emphasis on transformative processes 139
- non-expert (male) planners 126, 127
- stakeholder involvement 125, 138–9
- stakeholders
 - an impediment or an opportunity 138–41
 - resisters as 8, 126
 - success variable, why? 128
 - through stakeholders, Honduras 129–31
- gender planning
 - problems of implementation 132–3
 - stakeholders approach to (Rao and Stuart) 139
- gender politics, competing crop production systems (Gambia) 147, 148, 152–4
- gender relations, institutionalised and structured nature of 109
- gender training
 - gender planning 132–3
 - not too successful in WID unit 132
 - participatory methods in 131
 - SEAGA, new conceptual framework for 133
 - use of role-play 132
- gender-disaggregated data
 - little used in evaluations 144
 - and sub-Saharan case studies 148–50, 164
- gender-equitable approaches 4
- Geneva Conventions (1949), and the missing preamble 23–4
- good practice 13
- Grassroots Federation, and the Participatory Change Process 237–8
- Harvard Framework 132
- Honduras, mainstreaming gender through stakeholders 128–31
- human rights 23, 24, 25
- ‘Humanitarian Charter’, and the Sphere Project 24
- humanitarian values, and development values 22
- impact assessment 18
- impact indicators 158, 160, 162
- impoverishment, reasons for 145–6
- inclusory approaches 3
- ‘multiple subjectivities’ 17
- and positive changes in power relations 6
- income-generating projects (IGPs) for women 107
- indicators, associated with enabling conditions 156–9, 157, 160
- INGO performance criteria 86
- INGOs, operationalising BUL in 86–103
 - barriers and alternatives 95–100
 - and bottom-up learning (BUL) 89–90, 90–2
 - changing as organisations 95–6
 - defined 102n
 - do INGOs have a learning disorder? 87–90
 - funding women’s market-garden groups in The Gambia 152
 - mission-centred thinking – and practice, signs of 93–5
 - recalibration following BUL 91
 - theoretical underpinnings 92–3
 - the way forward 100–2
 - see also* bottom-up organisational learning
- innovation theory, building advantage 193–4
- institutional analysis 108–9
- institutional learning, and capacity building 82
- internal motivations see self skills
- international aid 167–8
- international community, moral obligations of 144
- international humanitarian law 23–4
- international NGOs see INGOs

- Jubilee 2000, 'drop the debt'
campaign 7
- Kenya
Chanderema Women's Group
case study 146
building an effective partnership 155
extension and training 150
use of indicators to monitor the project 160–2
Farming System, Kenya 146,150,
155–6
land privatisation 21,22–3
NGOs work with pastoralists on land rights and livelihoods 22
PAMFORK (Participatory Methodologies Forum of Kenya)
227
- language skills 180
leadership 158–9
learning empowerment 93
learning, roadblocks to branded knowledge as dogma 26–9
funded assumptions as dogma 29
the rage to conclude 31–3
social science as dogma 30–1
LFA see Logical Framework Approach linkages and partnerships 155,164
'listening workshops' 75–6 livelihood security 164
improving levels of in Malawi 153–4
logframe see Logical Framework
Approach
Logical Framework Approach x, 5 bringing out disagreements 193
in development planning 215–16, 217 identification of interests 192–3
often used by INGOs 96–7
and PRA 214–19
process-based use of 183
as a process-tool? 190–2
reasons for introducing logframe systems 215
seen as 'an aid to thinking' 189
for teaching, issues arising 192–4 tools for public interest as a contested terrain 192 tools used in professionalised
development management 183
understanding of in a public action perspective 188–90,191
will continue to evolve 182
- Malawi
Women in Agriculture
Development Project
146,148–9, 151, 153–4
market-place of ideas concept 36
methods 16,18,210,217
capacity-assessment methods
78–9
commitment and/or passion of application 4
level of skill in use 3–4
participatory 131,234
in participatory and inclusive
approaches 13,14–15
in PRA 222–3
reasons behind choice 3
Socrates, teaching methods 37,41n specifics of putting approaches into action 2–3
see also Botswana, ethnicity and participatory development
methods
- Microcredit Summit Declaration and Plan of Action 76–7
microfinance schemes 11
monitoring 18
'moving trains', as models for further reform 34–5
multiple advocacy 31
- natural resource management projects
143, 146
negative discovery 230,231
NGOs
becoming 'rights-based' 23
Farming System, Kenya 146,150,
155–6

- involvement in Rwanda and Kenya 22,146,150
- large and established 66
- small new, need for clarity of vision 66–7
- Southern Africa, mixed team of external consultants possible 120–1
- see also* INGOs
- Nigeria
 - adoption of soybean technology, case study 146–7
 - importance of disaggregated data 149–50
 - outmigration 150
- non-expert planners
 - active resisters or passive implementers 126,127,128
 - in formulation of second FAO Plan of Action 134,138
- OD (organisational development)
 - accepted more easily 118
 - concept, emergence of 110–11
 - described 110
 - different stages of 67
 - fails to address gender adequately 122
 - recent introduction into development sector 111
- OD theory and practice
 - fails to address impact of unequal gender relations 104
 - need to re-examine in light of gender inequalities 106
 - OD intervention value outweighs that of gender 113
 - traditionally gender-blind 104
- Official Views, in development agencies 26–7
 - as branded knowledge 28
 - learning from errors minimised 28
 - on the ‘One Best Way’ 29
- OL see organisational learning (OL)
- ‘One Best Way’ mentality, a problem in development policy 30
- open learning model 33–9
- opportunity-cost doctrine 38–9
- organisational capacity
 - development of 62–3
 - differs from industrial capacity 79–80
 - differs from region to region 79
- organisational change from two perspectives 104–23
 - developing appropriate models for 116,118
 - and flexi-time 122
 - gender, meaning and roots 106–10
 - gender approach, raises fear and resistance 119–20
 - gender approach and OD approach 111–13, 117–18
 - need for new approaches to 105
 - OD: meaning and roots 110–11
 - recognising fundamental differences: a way forward 113–16
 - team approach to 120–1
 - who should be the change agent/s? 120–1
- organisational culture, and gender 121–2
- organisational development see OD (organisational development)
- organisational learning (OL)
 - adaptive or generative 90
 - agenda of the ‘learning organisation’ 90–1
 - and INGOs 87
 - using Appreciative Inquiry 75–6
- organisational life, elements of 61–6, 67–8, 71–2
- organisational practice, may inhibit good field practice 94–5
- organisational pragmatism 91–2
- organisational skills 158
- organisational theory, new breakthroughs 94
- organisations
 - ability to read a development situation 69
 - addressing gender inequalities 109
 - analysis through a gender lens 112
 - assist communities 228–9

- beginning interaction by asking
 - about problems 229–30
- and bottom–up learning (BUL)
 - 90–2, 100–2
- can be reconfigured 75–6
- capacitated 64
- as cars 79–80
- challenges of full-time project
 - implementation 9
- change processes 65–6
- complex, literature on gender and
 - mainstreaming 124–5
- and conscious evolution of positive
 - imagery 76
- each organisation unique 68
- gender and OD 105–6, 121–2
- gender inequality 119
- gendered nature of 128
- healthy 80–1
- intangible aspects determine
 - functioning 65
- need to bring gender analysis
 - within 109
- need to invest in staff 9
- non-dogmatism 39–40
- as open systems 61
- small, unable to take the longer
 - view 15
- with stellar management systems
 - 77–8
- structure/practice and develop-
 - ment principles 94–5
- suffering from lack of capacity 64
- use of non-antagonistic ideas and
 - team play 37–8
- visions of 80–1
- written statements lacking
 - substance 63–4
- see also* development organisations
- out-migration, Nigeria 150
- Oxfam GB, 1994 Basic Rights
 - Campaign 14–15
- participation 234
 - constructive 228
 - in development projects 240
- participation and organisation, local 164
 - passive, reactive, active/full 151
 - sub-Saharan case studies 151–3
- participatory approaches 3
 - appeal of 13
 - challenges for 15–16
 - differ from stakeholder approaches
 - 129
 - evaluation 136, 243
 - in a participatory context 241
 - and shifting objectives 18
 - should explore ‘multiple
 - subjectivities’ 17
 - if institutionalised, process may
 - become rigid 14
 - and positive changes in power
 - relations 6
 - possible to engage excluded/
 - powerless groups 13–14
 - problem of methods separated
 - from approaches 14–15
 - successful scaling-up 15
 - vulnerable to mechanistic
 - application 14
- Participatory Budgeting 11–12
- Participatory Change Process 234–9
- participatory development, using PRA
 - 198–9, 221–2
- participatory development methods
 - emerging understanding of
 - implications of ethnicity 210
 - general perception of 16
 - may become structures 14
- Participatory Learning and Action
 - (PLA) 214
 - development and dissemination of
 - tools used in 94
- participatory management 101–2
- participatory methodologies: 227–33
 - available resources approach
 - 231–2
 - principles 227–9
 - problem approach 229–30
- Participatory Methodologies (PMs) 227
 - use of PM tools by development
 - organisations 229, 231–3
- participatory planning, importance of
 - 217

- Participatory Poverty Assessment (PPA) 1–2
 - important short-coming 216
 - Logical Framework Approach
 - planning according to LFA 215–16
 - planning according to PRA 216–17
 - origins of 216
 - in Uganda, at the local level 8
- Participatory Rural Appraisal (PRA) 51,192,198–9,234
 - Botswana 196, 200
 - challenges 221–5
 - development and dissemination of tools 94
 - empowerment of local people 216,217
 - ethnic minorities unwilling to speak out 209–10
 - information lacking on local perceptions 225
 - literature questioning cultural appropriateness 224
 - Logical Framework Approach 214–19
 - as part of process of participatory development 221
 - for (project) appraisal 221
 - as a research methodology 220
 - used in Coping with Cost Recovery study 54
- Participatory Rural Appraisal (PRA) 222–4
- partnerships 159
- PCP see Participatory Change Process
- pig-rearing, Mexico 5, 18
- Plan of Action for Women and Development (FAO)
 - first plan 133–4
 - second plan 134–8
- planning frameworks 125,126
- PMs see Participatory Methodologies (PMs)
- policy-oriented research, bridging the macro–micro gap in 44–59
 - conclusions from the two studies 57–8
- political exclusion, of ethnic minorities, Botswana 208
- political oppression and injustice 22–3
- political timetables/considerations and agendas 7
- poor people, rationality of choices made 1–2
- poverty
 - as both state and process (Kabeer) 145–6
 - as disempowerment 92
 - facts about 231
- poverty and suffering, understanding of 24–5
- power 5–6,15,126
 - different and unequal experience, men and women 104,107–8
 - and funding link, alternatives to 95
 - insidious and invisible 6
 - issues real and important 16
 - men feel threatened 119–20
 - new ideas challenge traditional notions 121–2
- power relations 6,104, 108, 224
- powerlessness, and poverty 6
- PPA see Participatory Poverty Assessment (PPA)
- PRA see Participatory Rural Appraisal (PRA)
- prejudice, and discrimination 197
- problem approach 230–2
- process, prioritised over output 7
- process approach 185–6
- process indicators 158–9,160,162
- programme planning and reporting, use of LogFrame 96–7
- progress, small, problem of scaling up 2
- project design
 - new approach to needed 190
 - and Official Views 27
- public relations/education, by INGOs 98

- rapid research techniques 49
- Rapid Rural Appraisal (RRA) 51
 - and RPA, critical reflections on 220–6
- relationship skills 176, 177
- repression, cycle of, Botswana 200
- research teams, and evaluation 243–4
- resource management 154–6
- role shock 180
- RRA see rapid rural appraisal (RRA)
- Rwanda
 - involvement of NGOs in aftermath of genocide 22
 - UN International Criminal Tribunal, Arusha 21, 22
 - wetland land-use systems 147, 148, 151–2
- scaling-up
 - government adoption of pro-poor policies/practice 10–11
 - possibility of corruption 10
 - and skilling-up 10–11
 - successful, of participatory approaches 15
 - through sharing of knowledge and information 11–12
- scientific management 110
- SEAGA (Socio-economic and Gender Analysis) 133
- self skills 176, 177–8
- self-reliance, pursuance of 228
- skilling-up 10–11
- skills
 - acquisition of 62–3
 - job-related, in emergency relief work 173–8, 176, 179–80
- social exclusion 125
- social innovations, decentralised diffusion systems for 35
- Social Relations Framework 108–9
- social science, as dogma 30–1
- society, and power relations 108
- Socrates, teaching methods 37, 40, 41n, 42n
- South African NGO case study background 113–15
- lessons 115–16
 - use of gender consultant 113–16
- soybean technology, adoption of by men and women (Nigeria) 146–7, 149–50
- stakeholders
 - in gender mainstreaming 8, 125
 - gender planners 126
 - impediment or opportunity 138–41 and gender mainstreaming 139, 140
 - stakeholder approach 129, 141
 - tendencies regarding conceptualisation of 127
- state activity, decrease in 187
- strategic management 193–4
- sub-Saharan Africa
 - capacity-building in (World Bank) 76
 - roles of women in resource management decisions 145–64
 - sustainability indicators 159, 160, 162
 - systems and procedures, INGOs 96–7
- Tanzania see Change in Tanzania study
- theories, clash of 34–5
- top-down approaches 3, 190–1, 240, 241–2
 - evaluation of 17, 240–1
- training programmes, computer-based 41n
- Tribal Grazing Lands Policy, Botswana 201
- Triple-A Methodology 235–6, 239n
- UK
 - government emphasis on ‘best practice’ 12–13
 - interest in Participatory Budgeting 12
- UN Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide 23
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights 23
- US Peace Corps 180

- wealth ranking 55,218
- women
 - adapting to new crops/innovations 149–50
 - and children, traditionally seen but not heard 204
 - disempowered 139,141
 - grassroots, obstacles to involvement in planning 126
- greater managerial control over natural resource management projects 144
- involvement in new planning frameworks 125
- and men, gender approach exposes needs and differences 112
- new role models for younger women 115
- position of in organisations 107
- sidelined by organisational culture 121
- Women in Agriculture Development Project (WIADP)(Malawi) 146
 - data ‘allow’ women access to development resources 149
 - generation and use of disaggregated data 148–9
 - micro-level data gathering and extension service provision 155
 - refocusing and reorganising extension service 151
 - women mainstreamed into farm clubs 153–4
- Women in Development (WID) unit
 - gender training in 132–3
 - limitations of 107
 - women, untapped resource in the economy 107
- women’s needs, Honduras, how to meet better 129–30
- work objectives, in emergency relief work 172,173
 - altruistic/helping motives 178
 - being task-focused 179
 - benefiting/personal fulfilment 178–9
 - cohesion of purpose 178
- World Bank, capacity-building in sub-Saharan Africa 76
- Zambia, Coping with Cost Recovery study 45,53–7
- Zambia Participatory Poverty Assessment 53,54,56
- Zimbabwe, workshop, focused on gender—OD links 106
- ZOPP (objectives-oriented project planning system) method 190–1